

LUIS TABUENCA

COMPOSER / PERCUSSIONIST

Luis Tabuenca, born in Zaragoza, Spain, is a versatile composer and percussionist celebrated for his ability to blend composition and improvisation.

His collaborative nature has led to groundbreaking interdisciplinary projects with artists and musicians across various genres. His compositions span diverse forms, from opera to sound installations, garnering international acclaim and recognition.

Tabuenca's work has been recorded on renowned labels, and he has held key roles in music festivals and institutions. His innovative projects have received support from prestigious organizations, and he has shared his expertise through lectures and workshops at universities and cultural institutions worldwide.